Property Description

This is a tremendous opportunity to semi-retire in the paradise! Arguably the most popular accommodation in Arenal and lake-wide, top ranked on all major reservation sites such as Booking, AirBnB, VRBO, Expedia, Hotels, TripAdvisor... GREAT MULTI-FAMILY PROPERTY TOO!! This magical part of Costa Rica is truly amazing. Lake Arenal is located between two active volcanoes/national parks, Volcan Arenal and Volcan Tenorio. The elevation is 2,000 ft with surrounding mountains reaching up to 6,000 ft, which enables for the perfect climate year round. Beaches are nice for a holiday, but too hot for permanent living. Here you will never need neither A/C, nor heating. Rich volcanic soil is encouraging to gardening. Everything grows perfectly, you put a dry stick into the ground and it will start growing. Besides, Arenal area is great for business too. Practically all leisure tourists visiting Costa Rica stop by the beach and by volcano Arenal.
