Property Description

Orotina is strategically located as a gateway to some of the best beaches and several National Parks. You can find Orotina located in the north Pacific region of Costa Rica, just at the foot of the Monte del Aguacate. This town is found about halfway between the other communities of Quepos and Atenas, west of Alajuela. Orotina is only a 45 minutes drive from the capital city of San José. Orotina is an essential destination if you want to enjoy the best fruits and vegetables in all Costa Rica. This 7000 square meters property consists of a 3 bedroom house, a pool, barbecue area, storage unit, lots of mango trees, and some other fruits trees as well.
