Property Description

Beautiful 3-story house located within a farm with semi-private access. The house has on the ground floor a swimming pool, a cellar and space with the possibility of placing terrace-style furniture, barbecue, table tennis, among others. It has two accesses to the upper floor, the first is inside the warehouse and the second is on the outside, the latter has a system so that a wheelchair can access the second floor. This second floor has a terrace, an office-style area (which can be closed and turned into a room), laundry room, full bathroom, kitchen, dining room and space to place the TV. On the third floor you will find the main room with space for an additional bed, a jacuzzi and a full bathroom. You will also find 2 secondary rooms with their respective closets and a full bathroom. All spaces have large windows with views of the mountains and the nature that surrounds the house, in addition to the fact that the water is from a spring supplied by the farm itself.
