Property Description

Nestled in the serene beauty of Pacuar, Perez Zeledon, Costa Rica, this exquisite property epitomizes modern comfort in a picturesque mountain setting. Completed in 2023, this almost-new home boasts 190 square meters (2045 square feet) of meticulously crafted living space, blending contemporary design with the tranquility of its natural surroundings. Upon entering through the property's electric gate, a sense of security and privacy envelops you. The meticulously maintained grounds span 7.5 acres, offering a verdant oasis dotted with fruit trees that flourish under the Costa Rican sun. As you explore the landscape, the soothing sound of the bordering creek complements the stunning mountain vistas that stretch out before you, creating an ambiance of serenity and connection with nature. Step inside the home, and you'll be greeted by a spacious and thoughtfully designed interior. The open-concept living area is illuminated by natural light streaming through large windows, accentuating the sleek lines and modern finishes that define the space.
